Dear Parents,

Odd Socks Day- This week started with Odd Socks day to mark the start of Anti-bullying week. Mrs Collings led our Monday worship on the theme and pupils have been exploring anti-bullying in class this week.

BBC Children in Need – Year R & Year 1 celebrated Children in Need by dressing up under the theme of When I grow up, I would like to be..... Aspirations included Princesses, Scientists, Builders, Palentologist, Explorers, Boatbuilder, Policeman, Nurse, Prison Officer and Super Heros. We have also taken part in the BBC Children in Need competition to win the school £500, Fingers crossed!

Chartwells COP26 workshops – The postponed workshops took place on Wednesday pupils explored food waste and how it can help support positive climate change.

Year R Osborne House Daffodil Bulb planting – On Thursday Year R continued the tradition of Reception pupils planting Daffodil bulbs at Osbourne House. Our pupils learnt about Queen Victorias' children and followed in their footsteps and planted over 2000 bulbs. We plan to return in the spring to see how successful we have been. A huge thankyou to Toby and the gardeners at Osbourne for supporting us.

Open Morning for prospective parents – On Thursday 25th prospective parents are invited to visit the school and see us in action. If you know of any families thinking of joining us please could you highlight this opportunity with them. Poster on our Home page of the school website. Please call the school office to book a tour.

Prayer

This Sunday is the feast of Christ the King

God of all, you sent your Son to show us how to live.
Help us to listen to the truth and to follow Jesus' example in our lives.
Amen.

Reception...

Olivia Colman - for trying really hard with the initial sounds in her phonics work.
Eleanor Lauchlan - For beginning to use her phonic sounds to annotate her drawings and models.

Year 1...

Travis Caws - for super independent maths this week. Well done!
Teddy Bould - for trying so hard to improve the formation of his letters! Your handwriting is much neater well done!

Year 2...

Billy Surman – For making super progress in reading this week. Keep up the good work!
Milo Parry – For writing superb questions in English this week. I am really impressed with the work you are producing. Well done!

Year 3...

Emma Willey – For excellent weaving. Emma listened carefully and worked with enthusiasm on her weaving.

Milo Cook and Harry Darby – For playing and excellent first football match for the school.

Year 4...

Sienna Margetts – For her improved presentation and attention to detail. She has produced some beautiful pieces of work in RE lessons and her punctuation has become much more consistent.

Tyler Dunne – For his great progress with Fractions this week and his continued success with times tables! Keep up the good work Tyler!

Year 5...

Riley Peacey for showing excellent netball skills in PE this week and working well as part of his team.

Elise Cheverton for increased confidence in class. Elise is happy to join in with class discussions now and often puts her hand up to answer questions.

Year 6...

Ruby King - For great effort in lessons. Ruby has worked hard to show her understanding and contributes well to class discussions.

Kye Rounsevell - For super effort in P.E. Kye demonstrates good understanding of the sports covered and is a great fit for the centre position in netball.
